PROLOGUE

One brisk September, not so long ago, a wise, old owl was sitting comfortably on an ancient limb of an old oak tree. As he methodically turned his head one hundred eighty degrees toward me, I heard him hoot sadly, "What good is my tree of knowledge, if no one makes use of it? What does this younger generation know or care about it?" "But you're wrong, Mr. Owl," I said, "come perch on my shoulder and I'll take you to a place where knowledge from your tree is being used to sprout an unending supply of new branches."

To prove my point, I carried Mr. Owl through the corridors of Brookline High School and peeked into each room from one hundred to four hundred twenty-nine. He saw students studying the many subjects which provide the solid foundation needed for an increase of knowledge. He became so excited that he nearly fell off my shoulder! He made another one hundred eighty degree turn, and asked if he might please stay after school to see what happened then. He saw the students participating actively and creatively in athletics and club activities. From the French Club and Math Society, to the football and swimming teams, he saw students learning the meaning of understanding and cooperation.

"Well," sighed Mr. Owl, as I placed him back on the ancient limb, "that trip certainly picked up my feathers! Now I know that my tree hasn't been forgotten; that Brookline High School will continue to contribute to its growth. I can think of no better theme for your 1959 Murivian than my Tree of Knowledge," said wise, old Mr. Owl as he slyly winked at me and turned one hundred eighty degrees away.

BERTRAM H. HOLLAND

To Akers House, Class of 1959:

You are about to pass another milestone in your journey through life. Graduation is the culminating marker in the life of your Class of 1959 but it should be only one of many milestones in your own personal journey along life's highway. All your school activities, both in class and out, have been preparation not so much for your high school diploma as for the opportunities and responsibilities which come after graduation. The world of 1959 needs your enthusiasm, your energy, your creativeness and your civilizing influence individually and collectively.

I hope you may achieve milestone after milestone of worthwhile accomplishments after graduation. Your school has helped you to gain in knowledge, in skills and in your sense of values. I trust that you will strive throughout life to develop this all-important sense of values because "It is the set of the soul that determines the goal and neither the calm nor the strife."

Best wishes for the future!

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Dr. Ernest R. Caverly

Dr. Thomas Kendrick

In order to learn correctly, one must be guided correctly. We, at Brookline High School, are very fortunate to have the expert and understanding guidance of the Brookline School Committee. Through the excellence of its direction, our school has attained the position of one of the finest secondary schools in the country. The untiring efforts of this committee and of our Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Ernest R. Caverly, enable us to enjoy the privilege of such plans as the House System and the Advanced Placement Program. We, of Brookline High School, would like to thank our School Committee for planting and maintaining the tree of knowledge in our town.

AKERS HOUSE

To Akers House, Class of 1959,

You have come to the end of an academic milestone and have done so with distinction and laudable success. We in the House Office, and members of the staff have been proud of you, as wholesome, alert, individuals and as an unusual and protective group. Your sound judgments have contributed materially to the school community.

We are prayerful that in the years to come you will meet life courageously, that you will face the complexities of our fast-changing world with understanding and goodwill, and that you will continue to grow morally, spiritually, and intellectually.

May our paths cross often in the years to come!

B.M.S. LIFESAVERS

Edith Douglass
Assistant Housemaster

PACKARD HOUSE

David Meyers
Housemaster

"Life is a matter of relative value."

Some years ago a well-known jurist made this statement. It is true now as it was then, and can serve you well as a basis for your outlook on life. Today, a particular problem, a special test, a specific formula, a date for the prom may each appear to be of paramount importance in your young lives. And yet we live in an era when we have begun to probe outer space, when we must learn to live with atomic power, and when we send missiles at fantastic speeds for unbelievable distances. Your former problems may now tend to fade into relative insignificance. Next year, one of your major objectives will be acceptance to the college of your choice or the securing of desirable employment. As important as they may now seem, these are means to an end—not the end itself. As you set your goals, do so realistically, and do not lose sight of the forest because of several huge trees immediately before you. May your life be a series of wise choices that bring you much satisfaction and joy.

David Meyers
Edith Douglass

SHAILER HOUSE

Our Shailer House has grown this sophomore year. Over seventy new pupils have joined us and some have come from as far away as England and France.

We've grown in size so that at our peak we are the largest house that B.H.S. has ever boasted. We've grown in importance and accomplishments, too.

Honors go to our members who made the varsity football team. They contributed to a successful and memorable football season.

Elections for class officers were held in October and Shailer House News' first issue came out at that time. This first house newspaper has created much controversy but we feel it has been challenging and purposeful.

"Dress-Up Day" is another idea our house has inaugurated which has provoked discussion and debate.

In February, a House Council Assembly was staged; also, a Lincoln Day Assembly. One of our members was chosen for the lead in the musical production "Lute Song."

Yes, Shailer House has grown this year. We, your faculty officers, feel we are with you and you with us in continuing to build our House: substantial in numbers; solid in its foundation of freedom, loyalty, and truth; functional in its academic pursuits; colorful in its extra-curricular activities; furnished with the essentials of friendship and goodwill; equipped with the essence of brotherhood.

Let us continue to build!

ROBERTS HOUSE

Housemaster
Mr. Wall

Assistant Housemaster
Mrs. Ogden

Successful classes have many abilities—scholastic, athletic, social. For class success then, each student in the class must develop a wide range of capabilities.

Most important are scholastic qualifications. Serious, concentrated attention is the basis of worthwhile accomplishment in the academic field. Important, but different in nature, is participation in social and athletic activities.

The boy who can be strong and rough on the football field but considerate of others in lunchroom and corridors and serious in classes will earn the respect of everyone. The girl who can cheer loudly at football games, be lighthearted and interesting at dances or Girls' league functions, but pursue her studies with a deep interest will develop a type of popularity based on quality of character rather than on superficial attractiveness.

Brookline High School expects you to be many things. May you measure up as a class and as individuals in the many opportunities offered you.

Mrs I. M. Ogden

John H. Wall

PETITION
WE THE UNDERSIGNED

Well, Les, are you happy, you finally made the School Council.page???

LOCKER

"Locker marshal! Puleeze open my locker—I forgot my key!" This is the constant, familiar cry of the absent-minded student. The locker marshals patiently opened, shut, check lockers, and collect lost articles, day after day. Without these able people there would be a snag in the well-run machinery of the high school. The distinctive blue and gold arm band designates a student volunteer who has learned the importance of congenial relationships with people. He is one of the few who "can keep his head when those about him are losing theirs!"

COURT OF JUSTICE

Row 1: S. Forman (Sgt. of Arms), B. Mark (Clerk), F. Goldschmidt (Chief Justice), J. Plotkin. Row 2: S. Sacks, M. Zack, E. Levinson, L. Jacobson.

"Order in the court!" said Mr. Owl as he adjusted his glasses and banged his gavel. You know, he presides over the Court of Justice, the Judicial branch of Brookline High's Student Government. In his chambers students are tried and judged by the peers they have chosen as representatives. The Court inspires respect, for every student is aware of its presence. Its force is an important one in the maintenance of our school standards.

Frank's going up in the world.

AERO

Our tree seems to have a plane stuck on one of its branches— it must be one of the Aero Club model planes. Actually, very few of their planes fly out of control. Flying sessions such as these are not the only activities of the Aero Club. The members, under the direction of Mr. Gleekman, build their own planes, hold construction classes, and make trips to air bases. For those students thinking about joining the Air Force or entering any phase of aviation, the Aero Club is a "must."

Row 1: S. Kaplan, R. Stokes (V. Pres.), U. Purins (Pres.), W. Maggi (Sec.), J. Conlin, J. Conlon. Row 2: T. Amirian, W. Nitkin, B. Miller, D. Schwartz, M. Stone, M. Ventre, J. Hanrihan. Missing: F. Silton (Treas.).

ALPHA PI

The crowning achievement of our stay at Brookline High School is admission to our Honor Society, Alpha Pi. Those who obtain high degrees of scholarship proficiency, and who are active participants in the extra-curricula life of B.H.S. make up its membership. The personalities of its members are widely diversified; in it are found not only all "A" students, but average students who have excelled in some phase of activity work, either athletic or scholastic. Most of the "all around" members of B.H.S. can be found in the membership files of Alpha Pi.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Mr. Goodrich, Sue Wilcon, Bruce Male, Yutaka Ishimitsu.

What greater way to spread the meaning of the Tree of Knowledge than an exchange of knowledge between countries. B.H.S. has had a very fruitful association with the American Field Service. Proof of this is the warm and whole-hearted approval the students have shown toward Imo, our Japanese exchange student. Imo has revealed to the student body how unimportant a common language, common clothes, and common likes or dislikes can be, simply by smiling warmly to show his appreciation of our ways. This, then, is the most important knowledge: to gain openmindedness and unprejudiced opinion.

Imo makes contact with American soil.

Our tree is just beginning to sprout an artistic branch; one that originated at the Art Club. Like several of the other members, it was skillfully guided by faculty advisor, Mrs. Woodberry, to a better understanding of the underlying ideas and morals of art. This goal was accomplished through frequent meetings, lectures, and discussions. Besides learning to appreciate art, members become acquainted with the various media used by artists by actually working with these materials. By attending more of these meetings, our tree hopes to add to his branch until it becomes strong and firm in this respect.

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

Row 1: Y. Woo, E. Goldberg (Sec.-Treas.), E. Koffman (Pres.), J. Lane (V. Pres.), M. Sokol. Row 2: W. Nitkin, F. Jacoby, S. Woolf, E. Elgart, P. Ryack.

How many times have you wondered what the "code" at the beginning of the newscasts on the radio are saying? The members of the Amateur Radio Club know, for they have taken advantage of the Morse Code instructions given at their meetings. In addition to learning the code, members can learn how a radio works, and have the thrilling opportunity of communicating with fellow "hams" throughout the world. The club maintains a station at B.H.S., KIDRT, and goes on trips to various radio and TV stations throughout greater Boston.

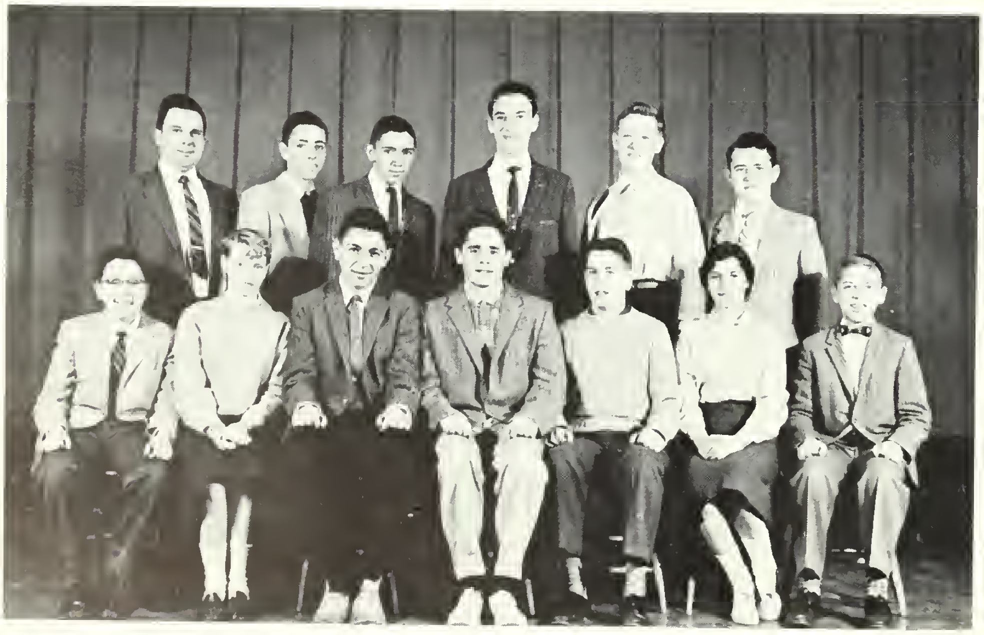
An aid to putting leaves on the Tree of Knowledge at B.H.S. is our Audio-Visual Staff. This group, under the guiding hand of Mr. Lowe, is trained in the operation of tape recorders, and slide and motion picture projectors. This training is rendered as a service to the school, helping all to master the various subjects for which are issued audio-visual aids. Next time you see a movie in U.S. History, or hear a tape in English, remember to thank the Audio-Visual Staff!

BANK



Row 1: E. Skolnick, L. Steele, K. Baker (Student Mgr.), A. Eckian (Asst.), R. Hyman, M. Pearlstein, G. DiRago. Row 2: Mr. Dunbar, J. Coppelman, C. Lutsky, B. Mushlin, B. Rubin, R. Bean.

STAFF

You're not on the Bank Staff, what are you doing near the teller's window?

The Bank Staff is responsible for handling your hard earned dollars every other Tuesday. Under the leadership of Mr. Dunbar, the Bank Staff encourages thrift through the school savings program. This staff is composed of capable Juniors and Seniors. Through this bi-monthly savings program many students have enough money to help finance their college education or to help launch them on their chosen careers. It is true that money doesn't grow on trees, but the Bank Staff cannot be convinced.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Row 1: T. Mednicov, F. Male (Treas.), D. Seligson (V. Pres.), J. Felder (Pres.), C. Podbros (Sec.), M. Fox, E. Rabinowitz. Row 2: Mr. Fox, S. Wall, C. Kredenser, S. Sagaloff, A. Kravetz, J. Franklin, J. Conlin.

The branch on our Tree of Knowledge called Biology is indeed a leafy one. Our student biologists at B.H.S., under the direction of Mr. Fox, make numerous field trips and outings, participate in the Biology Exchange Club, a national organization, and hold frequent meetings which greatly supplement the biology students' regular course. The club maintains a small zoo, where future biologists can see the subjects about which they are studying. The club also encourages its members to enter the Science Fair and aids them in completing their projects.

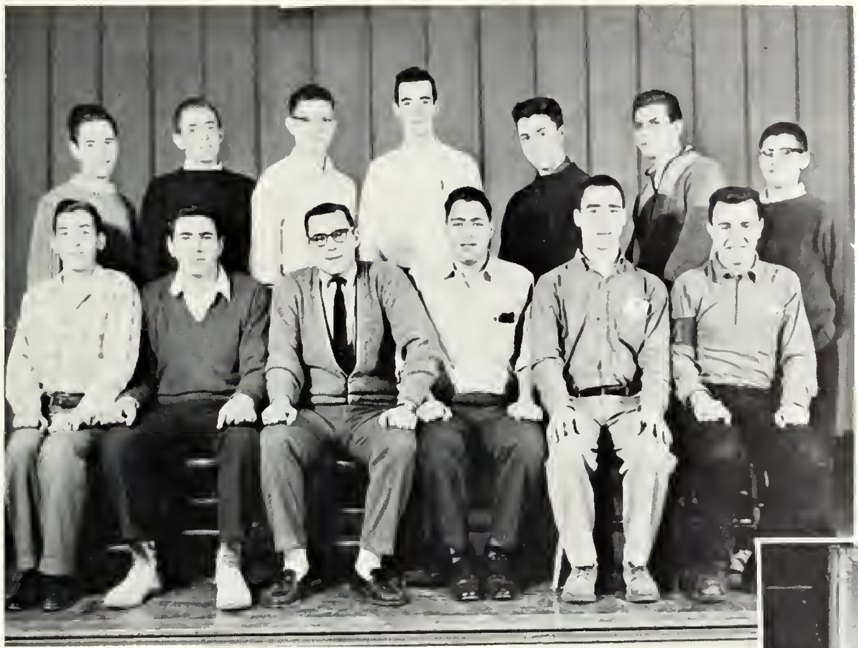
CENTRAL

Row 1: P. Callan, A. Levis, K. Foster, M. Flanders, E. Greenberg. Row 2: Mr. Dunbar, Mr. Dwinell, L. Fortier, Mr. Ehnes, Miss Kling, Mr. Golini.

Much time and labor is saved the officers of the school's many organizations by the Central Treasury. For it is here that all the funds of the school are deposited. The Treasury, led by Mr. Ehnes, submits a report each month so that the individual organization knows exactly what money it has. Besides the service rendered the school, the Central Treasury gives its student workers practical office experience. It is through this organization that our tree gained all its business acumen and learned how to budget his leaves wisely.

CAMERA CLUB



Row 1: R. Scola, M. Tenenbaum, J. Newman (Pres.), D. Leavitt (V. Pres.), B. Gamerman (Sec.), B. Levy. Row 2: L. Miller, R. Libby, D. Huddlwston. D. O'Donnell, D. Schwartz, M. Dolgin, R. Linsky. Missing: A. Dickerman (Treas.)

Did you notice that our tree is dressed in its best greenery today? That's because members of the Camera Club are going out to take pictures. The Club, under the guidance of faculty advisor, Mr. Parfitt, stimulates an interest in photography and supplies these students with excellent laboratory facilities. Members learn how to use the equipment, how to enlarge and develop negatives, and how to improve their picture taking technique. Meetings also include informative discussions and movies. Every year they sponsor a photography contest which is open to all students. So . . . smile prettily everyone!

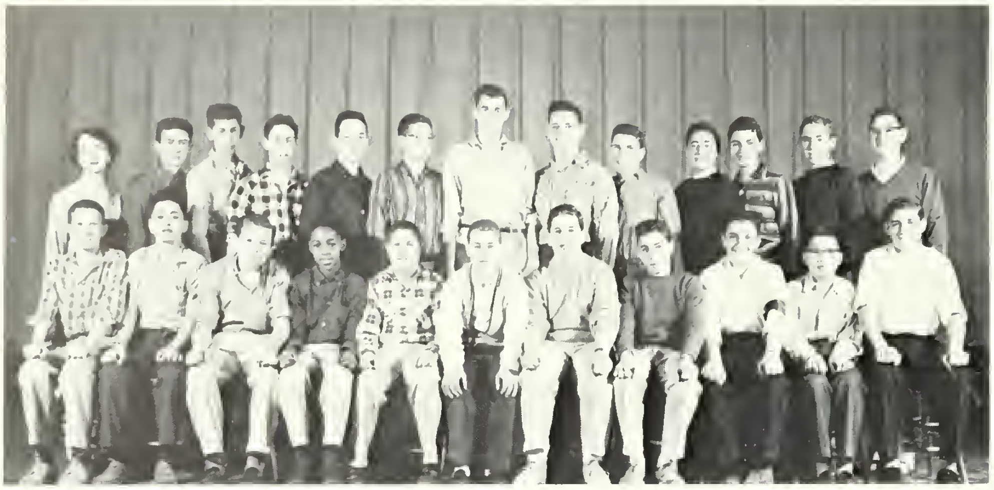
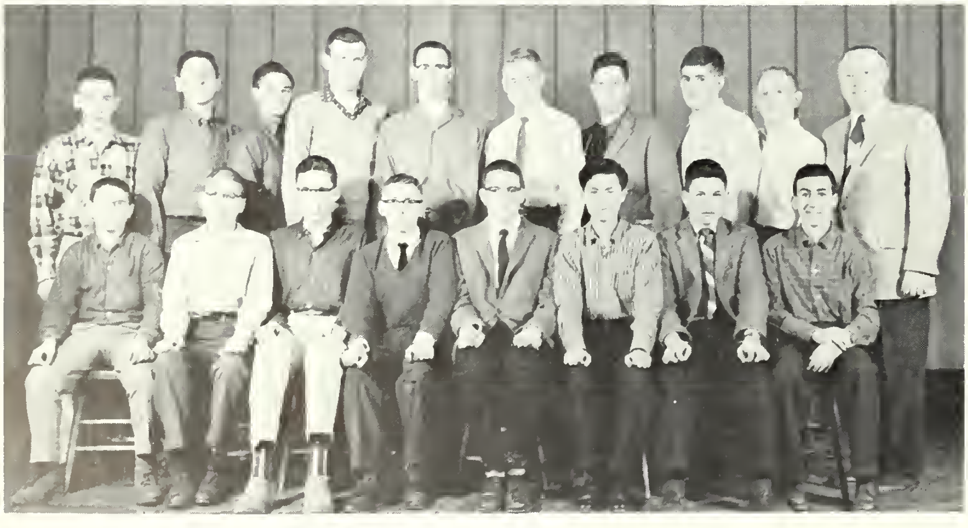
CHEF'S CLUB



Row 1: T. Manning, J. Tripodi, J. Green, M. Gray, K. Henderson, S. Elmont, R. Kahn, A. Erony, S. Greenstein, L. Chin, D. Pearlman. Row 2: Mrs. Caton, P. Harvie, R. Rosenthal, M. Shomes, P. Lipson, J. Feldman, A. Ross, S. Wasserman, L. Silverman, H. Sadow, A. Woodle, B. Libby, A. Swartz.

The members of the Chefs' Club belong to one of the tastiest organizations at B.H.S. At their weekly meetings, the boys learn how to bake, and how to prepare simple basic dishes. Some specialize in a branch of cookery that happens to interest them. Mrs. Caton makes sure that the cakes don't burn. Perhaps as a result of the Chefs' Club's achievements, the girls at B.H.S. have a new cry: "Sure he's handsome, but can he cook?" As proof of their culinary skill, our tree seems to be gaining weight since sampling their goodies!

CHESS



Row 1: M. Edesess, M. Halpern, M. Blumenthal, A. Abrams (Sec.), M. Sagoff (Pres.), T. Yee (V. Pres.), E. Savitz (Treas.), M. Raverby. Row 2: H. Siegel, J. Lane, M. Starr, R. Ambutter, J. Plotkin, J. Menke, D. Soloman, J. Goldberg, P. Grossman, Dr. Walsh.

"Check mate!" shouts the victorious player and another opponent gives way before the force of superior knowledge. This royal game is one which taxes the endurance of the most patient and finds losers among the most brilliant. However at B.H.S. the Chess Club enables not only skilled players, but also novices to acquire ability in this game. Don't let this statement fool you; Brookline has had years of unbroken supremacy. During the brain teasing game, we hear our tree say, "Your move."

CHEMISTRY CLUB

Row 1: M. Coris, G. Yonkers, L. Fox, B. Park (Sec.), M. Raverby (V. Pres.), B. Singer (Pres.), P. Carmen (Treas.), M. Krips, J. Gilman, C. Rosenberg. Row 2: C. Rapport, A. Gosule, I. Morris, Miss Campbell, J. Goldberg, J. Newman, M Sokol, M. Dolgin.

Are you wondering why the leaves on one branch of our tree are speckled? That's because the Chemistry Club tried one of their several experiments on it. In the science conscious world of today, the Chemistry Club at B.H.S. tries its best to encourage and stimulate scientific curiosity among its members. Each year, under the guidance of Miss Campbell, the members perform several experiments and discuss their results. The Club also makes trips and presents noted speakers.

While Barry and Mark experiment, Beverly announces last week's failures.

I'M ONLY A BIRD IN A GILDED CAGE
LM SM

Our tree extends its branches to all phases of learning with one of its sturdiest limbs supporting the Concert Choir. The devoted participants, who were chosen by Mr. Joseph through competitive tryouts, are grateful for the opportunity to work under expert guidance on such famous pieces as Handel's Messiah. Our tree wonders if it would not be worthwhile to take the harmony from this music and try to apply it to everyday living.

DRAMATICS

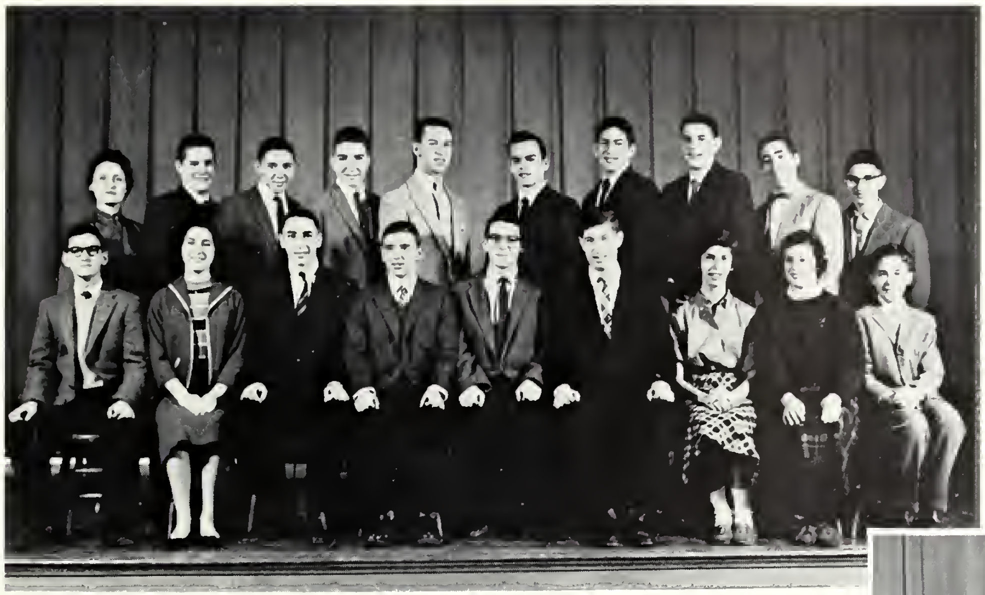
DEBATING SOCIETY



Row 1: B. Silverman, D. Barron, M. Zack (Sec.), L. Jacobson (V. Pres.), M. Sagoff (Pres.), L. Omansky (Sec.), B. Ring, N. Selib, E. Belsky. Row 2: Mrs. Joseph, E. Adelson, C. Lutsky, R. Hunter, M. Katz, B. Sneirson, D. Seligson, D. Victor, S. Goldberg, D. Scholsberg. Missing: B. Rose (Treas.).

"The basis of a free society is the availability of knowledge for any who desires it!" . . . and this is the Debating Society. That stern statement has just been uttered by a red face, sweating, but very eloquent sophomore participating in his first intra-mural debate. Under the excellent coaching of Mrs. Joseph, many students become superior speakers. After having obtained a certain degree of efficiency, they become eligible for interscholastic debates which are scheduled each year. This is the only club in school where open and organized discord can lead to harmony and a real understanding of any situation.

Leon, stop looking over his shoulder; he'll give you his homework when he's through.

SOCIETY

"Holly, how can you talk to me that way when I've given you the best years of my life?"

What are the objectives of the Dramatics Society? According to Mrs. Randall, our capable director, the society wants to give the students of B.H.S. a chance to display their dramatic abilities on stage. (as a prelude to Broadway, of course.) It wishes also to present to its members the techniques and fine points of acting, which not only make better acting, but make acting more interesting. The society maintains an appreciation of both current and past plays and actors.

FRENCH CLUB

D. Goldstein, C. Lesser (Treas.), E. Regolsky (V. Pres.), B. Mark (Pres.), S. Miller (Sec.), Miss Bridey.

"I shall never move thee in French, unless it be to laugh at me . . . ." This thought passes through the minds of many first year French students when they listen to the more adept members of the French Club. In this club our tree extends its branches across the sea to help us learn about other countries. We feel its presence during each meeting as songs, skits, and informative discussions are held to help further our knowledge and enjoyment. The friendly relations, which knowledge of French language and customs helps to promote, puts this club in the top branches of our tree.

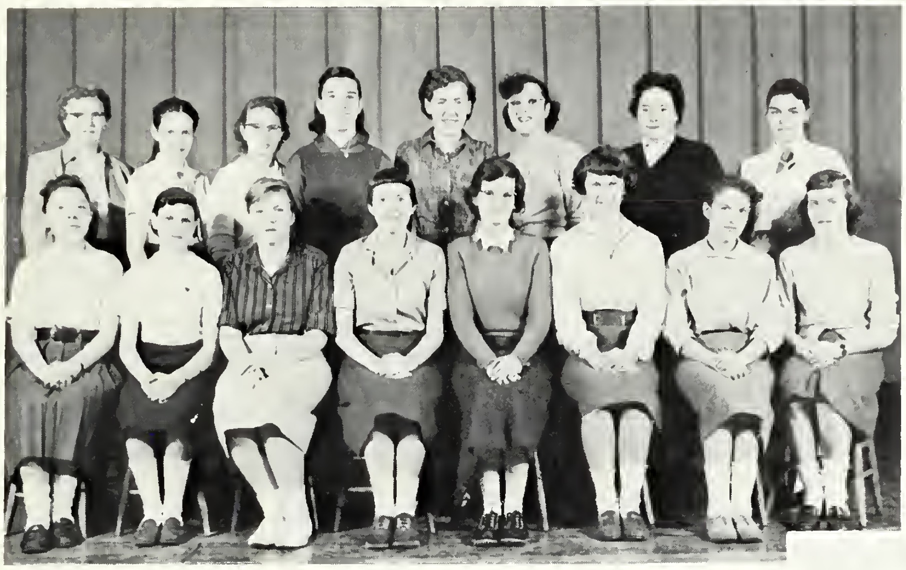
Mon Dieu, oh voleur, oh voleur! !

GIRLS'

Row 1: E. Regolsky, N. Grossman, J. Eckian (Treas.), J. Butter (Pres.), I. Nesson (2nd V. Pres.), L. Carroll (Sec.), J. Singer, M. Colitz. Row 2: M. Frank, C. Stein, J. Pignato, Miss Deal, Miss Driscoll, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. Silver, J. Gilman, S. Tobin. Missing: K. Coury (1st V. Pres.).

Knowledge used for the enjoyment and benefit of others is perhaps the greatest gift of our tree. In the Girls' League the Tree turns into a helping hand when the members devote their time in doing volunteer work at hospitals, old age homes, and settlement houses. Their learning begins locally with get-acquaintance teas and reaches a climax in the senior year with a supper party featuring the installation of new officers and an exciting original show. Never did our tree find such willing helpers for its sheltering branches.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA



Row 1: R. Goldberg, R. Solomon, C. Donahue (Sec.), P. Douglas (V. Pres.), E. Donahue (Pres.), M. Keegan, T. Cohen, S. Battand. Row 2: Miss South, J. Mills, P. Brown, D. Rosenbloom, G. Bird, J. Bernhardt (Treas), S. Driben, D. Candella.

"Harmony in the Home," this is the motto of the patient and sincere members of this hard-working group. It may seem in this mechanized age that housekeeping would amount to nothing, but good cooking is still an art known only to the sacred few. From the fragrant odors which escape the ovens on the second floor, this student would say that Betty Crocker has stiff competition coming in the near future. In the bi-monthly meetings, these future homemakers discuss everything, including parties, movies, cake sales, family life, and general housework. The F.H.A. promotes a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.

Row 1: E. Rassias, L. Datz, B. Van, G. Rosenfield, J. Winer (Pres.), M. Nathanson, M. Levine, D. Arnold, A. Ring. Row 2: C. Richmond, H. Winer, M. Fishbein, M. Karp, K. Wax, H. Shapiro, L. Welling, R. Lampke, R. Lipson.

"Helping Hands Around the World," is one motto which could be applied to this national organization. Each year J.R.C. conducts a drive to collect articles for children who are less fortunate than we. It is a symbol of relief and hope to countless thousands of homeless and destitute people throughout the world. This year the Junior Red Cross members not only devoted their time within school, but also spent hours as volunteers after school and on week-ends. This organization has come to mean service and opportunity for a worthwhile cause. Their emblem, the red cross, is proudly worn by our tree.

Row 1: M. Vikre, S. Fishman, L. Levine, N. Spack, J. Winer (Pres.), G. Wiess, M. Mackay, G. Lynch, D. Greenfield. Row 2: M. Shepard, E. Blackstone, M. Goldberg, H. Golick, J. Fishman, M. Hurwitz, M. Coyne, A. Schwartz, S. Pacher, H. Callen, S. Elmount.

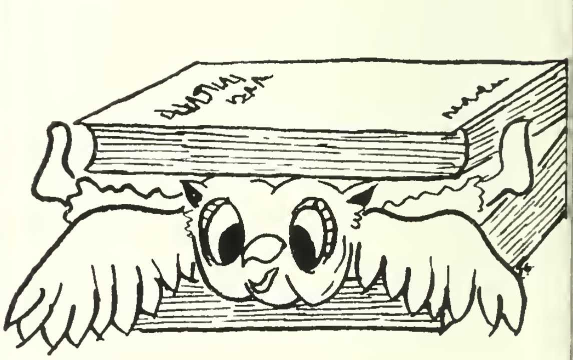
Row 1: M. Anderson, M. Smith, A. Tripodi, W. Cohen, E. Greenberg, C. Brousseau, T. Cohen, B. Goldblatt, M. Sugarman, A. Kaplan, N. Goroff. Row 2: P. DeMartin, L. Paron, R. Van, J. Shoostine, B. Smith, Mrs. Leigh, I. Young, C. Podbros, N. Baum, E. Brodinsky, I. Brody, S. Kelz.



LATIN CLUB

"It's a conspiracy to make us extinct." This heated comment took place during a discussion at a Latin Club meeting. The topic concerns rumors to the effect that, "Latin is a dead language!" To the members of this elite society, Latin is not only still living, but also a difficult subject to wrestle with each night. Any of the members will tell you of the unifying effect Latin has had on the Romance Languages; they will also point out its invaluable use in science, law, and literature. "In conclusion, I would like to say, "fear not mighty Caesar, thy innumerable wars will continue to trip up unsuspecting freshmen."

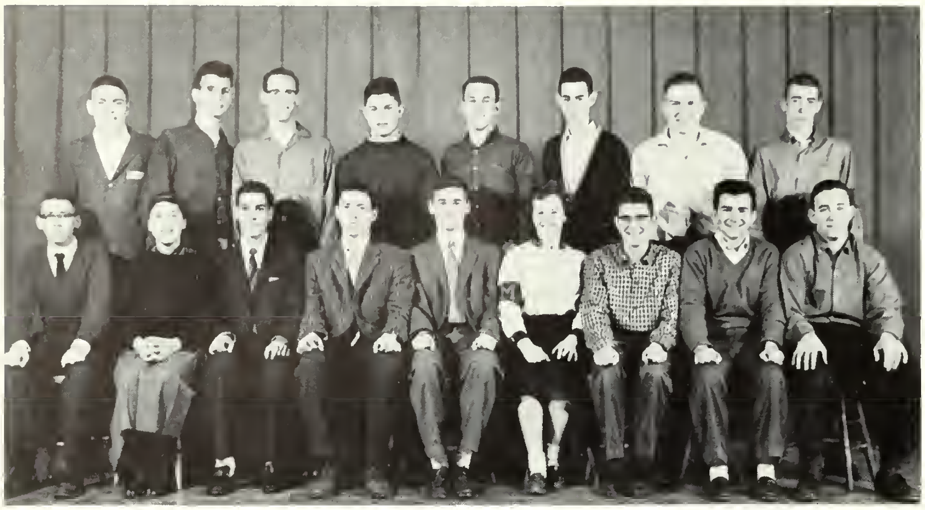
And they say Latin's a dead language!!!

AIDES

What every library aide needs . . . a pair of extra hands!?!

"Where are you, now that I need you?" cried a student who had wandered into the library to look up obscure facts, persons, or books of his choice. This question was referred to one of the many library aides who are stationed behind the desk from 8:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. The members of the library staff have given valuable service in making our library an efficient vehicle for learning. Like any other group of volunteer helpers, these aides contribute enormously toward keeping our school a unified and smoothly running organization. We even find our tree bringing library slips to study rooms.

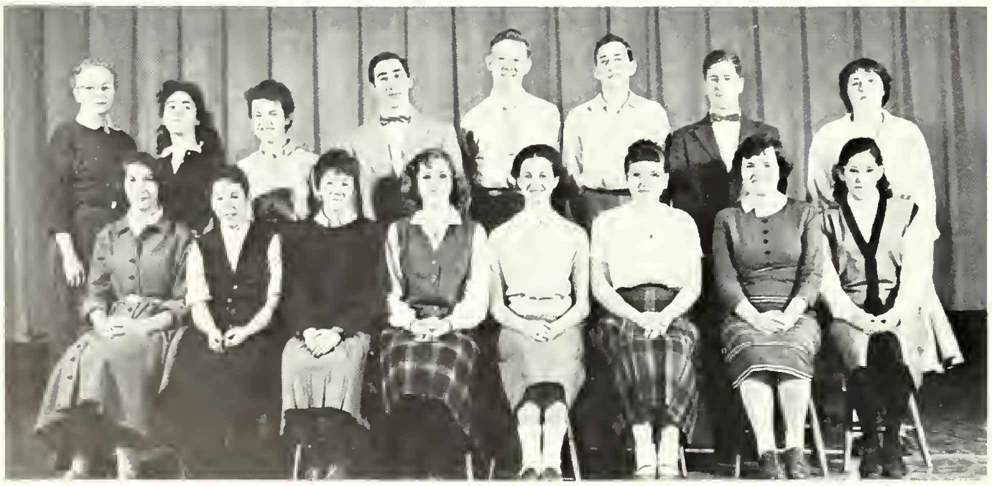
MATH SOCIETY



Row 1: A. Abrams, B. Garelick, R. Selya (Treas.), S. Dolberg (V. Pres.), S. Farber (Pres.), B. Park (Sec.), E. Koffman, S. Gustin, D. Pearlman. Row 2: I. Morris, E. Halpern, J. Plotkin, B. Singer, M. Katz, J. Weinberger, V. Dobras, P. Galland.

"Two and two are four . . . Inchworm, Inchworm, measuring arithmetic, it is very plain to see how very bright you are." This may not be musical but the society is certainly mathematical! The Inchworm has been replaced by the slide rule and the complexity of the problems has become more intense. However, the Math Society unflinchingly meets these new obstacles and happily hurdles them. The members avail themselves of the opportunity to further their knowledge of this elusive subject through trips, films, lectures, discussions, and Science Fair Projects. The Math Society successfully combines formal knowledge with fun as they follow the "Inchworm" to the top of our tree.

LITERARY



Row 1: J. Steinhurst, M. Silverton, B. Troderman, S. Meyers (Chm. of Readers), B. Paul (Chm. of Writers). Row 2: Miss Tiews, M. Ansara, R. Weinstein, S. Goldberg, B. Rubin, S. Goldenberg, F. Shulman, D. Burgin.

METEOROLOGICAL SOCIETY

Mr. Fuller, J. Wright, P. Grossman (V. Pres.), C. Rapport (Pres.), A. Lockhart (Sec.-Treas.), M. Sokol.

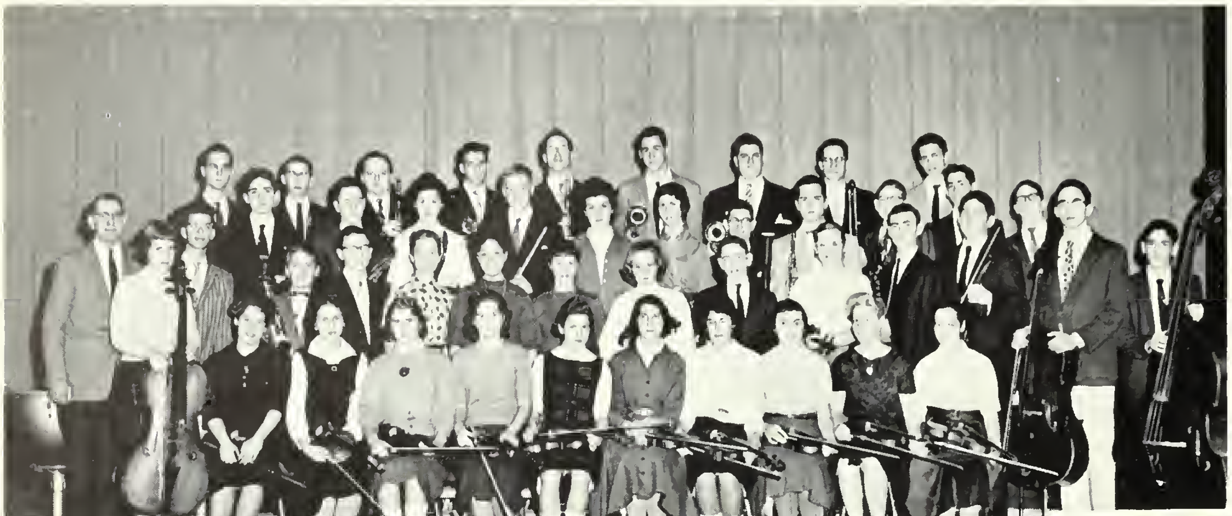
Every one, but every one, talks about the weather especially in and around room 329. Complete weather forecasts written by the members are regularly posted on the nearby bulletin board. The meetings with their informative discussions are open to all houses. Be it rain or shine, sleet or snow, the members always find some new and interesting attribute of the weather. Although it is only in its second year of existence, the Meteorological Society has proved its merit to the faculty and students. The leaves of our tree may be drenched in a downpour, but the spirits of this society are never dampened!

SOCIETY

. . . And then, little red riding hood stopped by the stream to pick some flowers . . .

No refreshments, no dues, no Alpha Pi credit; just readers and would-be writers who have a sincere desire to study great literature and to write immortal verse. Society was originally organized for the prevention of indifference to literary achievement. With this as its goal the society helps to build a firm foundation for democracy, freedom, of thought and individualism. To promote this quality, the society holds several joint meetings throughout the year to listen to informed and very interesting speakers tell of their experiences concerning famous people and far away places.

ORCHESTRA



Row 1: M. Marel, T. Mednicov, A. Friedman, F. Musker, R. Abramson, J. Steinhurst, C. Podbros, L. Carroll, N. Baum, M. Goldberg. Row 2: Mr. Joslin, K. Eaton, A. Huberman, G. DiRago, J. Kline, R. Mark, M. Barlow, E. Steinberg, E. Faxon, D. Kerstein, P. Moore, G. Weene, D. Seligson, S. Woolf, W. Walter. Row 3: T. Amirian, L. Miller, S. Bergheim, J. Menke, V. Gilman, B. Ring, M. Yorra, G. Bell, M. Halpern, M. Prenovitz, P. Zoll. Row 4: F. Bell, A. Abrams, F. Levy, C. Scheffreen, D. Lieberman, T. Farber, B. Gross, D. Roseman, D. Farber.

The strains of sweet music waft down the corridors of the north wing. Can it be the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, or is it the Boston Symphony Orchestra? What's that you say? The Brookline High School Orchestra? Oh, of course; how can one mistake that distinctive tone? The membership in the orchestra is open to students of all four houses who display skill in playing a particular instrument. These talented students, under the excellent direction of Mr. Joslin, aptly perform at assemblies, dramatic productions, concerts, and graduation ceremonies. Indeed, our tree lifts its branches in praise and appreciation of this beautiful display of musical knowledge.

O'Neil, S. Stocker (Head), B. Mercer, E. Speros, J. Lucas.

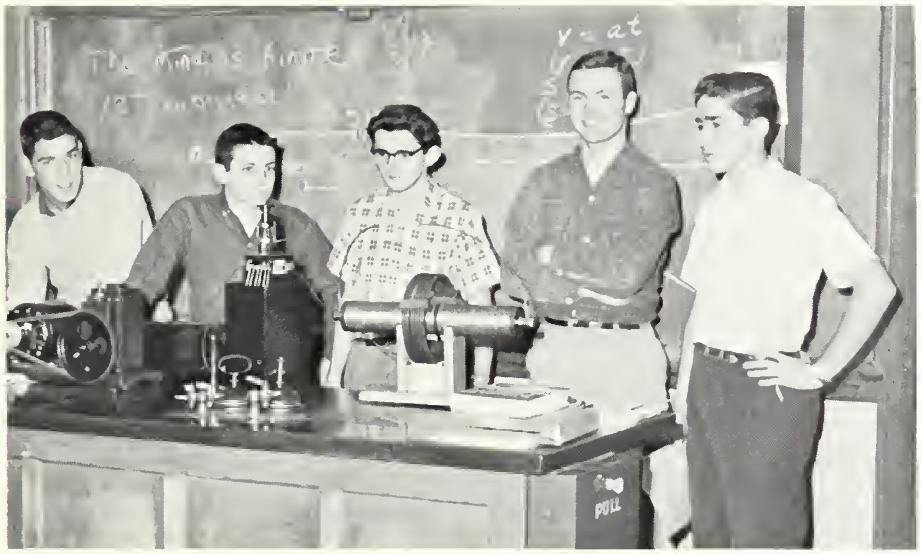
Rah, Rah, Pep Club, Hats off to thee! Rallies, bookcovers, banners, and spirit equal the Pep Club of Brookline High School. The members' enthusiasm is highly contagious and they are responsible for infecting every student with loyalty and pride. Exuberance is their byword as they strongly voice their cheers. They are in full regalia at the highspot of the football season, the Newton-Brookline game, during which they try their utmost, cheering our team to victory. Why our tree is so excited by them that it's burst into red and blue leaves!

The prettiest football team B.H.S. ever had—

CLUB



Mal glows as the electric current slowly passes through him.

"What goes up must come down." Prove it? Why, certainly. Just come to a meeting of the Physics Club and any question you may have will be answered; from this problem of gravity to Einstein's theory of Relativity. Its members explore the complexities of this science at their enthralling bi-monthly meetings. Many of their interesting discussions and experiments result in prize-winning projects at the Science Fair. In this scientific age of outer space, the knowledge of Physics is invaluable. The members of this club are widening their horizons today, and may be the conquerors of space tomorrow.

RADIO BROADCASTING CLUB

Row 1: A. Colgan, A. Carissimo, D. Carro, M. Smolker, L. Fleishman (Treas.), S. Aranoff (Pres.), R. Levy (V. Pres.), M. Coris (Sec.), C. Hamburger, A. Lepler. Row 2: J. Pawley, J. Skinner, J. Aranov, J. Wallen, P. Miller, D. Jacobs, S. Pell, J. Karphoff.

It's Todd-A-O radio on the NEW W.B.H.S.—4890 on your corridor dial! The members of this famous station go under the alias of the Radio Broadcasting Club, for security reasons, of course! They are actually the future radio workers of America in disguise. Its activities encompass conducting record polls and reporting these results on Bob Clayton's Boston Ballroom, participating in his television show, or simply presenting their own radio scripts. Whatever it is, our tree will tell you that he's all wired for sound and tuned in!

Well Bob, you finally made a candid.

Don't be a Nebbish!—Read the Sagamore for the news when it's still news! This prize-winning school paper, ably edited by Steve Farber and excellently managed by Marilyn Coris, helps to make the years at Brookline High School informative ones. It rests high upon the branches of our tree, bringing the knowledge of facts and fancies to the students. A well balanced mixture of editorials, current events, clubs, sports, news, and prominent personalities, constitutes its complete coverage of the news. The clever publicity posters of this year have added to an already appealing paper.

Nancy, how can you see without your glasses?

CUSTOMS CLUB

Are you psychologically ready to attend a tea? Do you know what to do and when to do it? Well, my dear, whatever are you waiting for? It's so easy and so much fun to learn. The Social Customs Club will quickly teach you how to be well-groomed and well-mannered. These things are all-important to your status in life, because people notice these first. I'm sure you have noticed the neat coat of leaves our tree is sporting this year. The reason? The Social Customs Club, of course!

Do you have a yen to swing "old jelly bean?" If so, then run right up to the fifty by fifty room where energetic Mr. Bemis is the caller. The fun you might have had in gym with this gay, spontaneous type of dancing is certainly doubled by your membership in the Square Dance Club. The members learn many different varieties of the square dances and become acquainted with innumerable calls. Thispleasant activity provides a wonderful combination of exercise and enjoyment. Why, look! Even our tree is swinging "old jelly bean!"

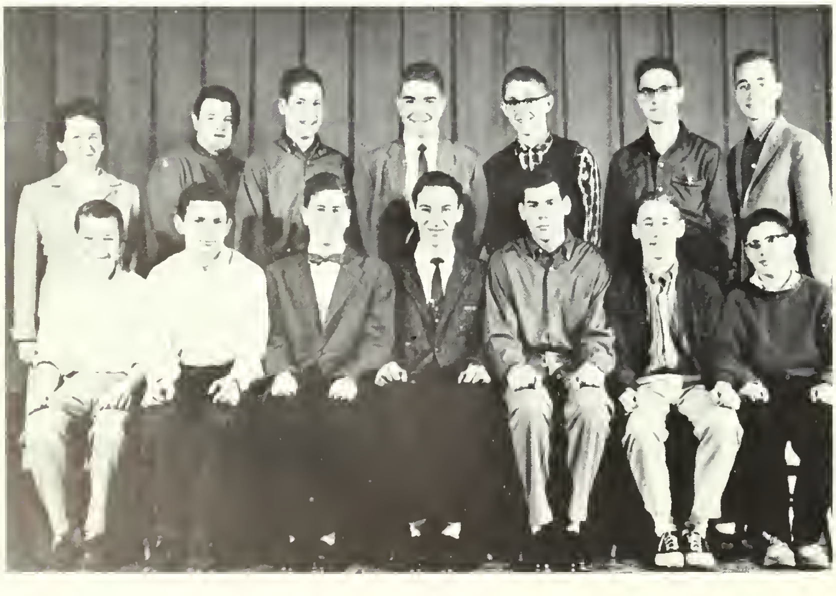
STAMP



What a fascinating story stamps tell! Why, ask any one of the expert philatelists who are roaming the corridors. He will tell you that every nation of the world is represented by various stamps. Each one is a history lesson in itself. The members of the Stamp Club eagerly meet to trade and to discuss new and old stamps. Whether they are of great or small monetary value is of little importance, but their uniqueness of background and their relative age is the coveted information. Amid the hubbub of the meetings and the trading of stamps, our tree emerges to discover many rare stamps stuck to its leaves.

Current events play an important part in our lives. In this day of speed, space satellites, and foreign entanglements, it is invaluable to have a good understanding of world affairs. It is the aim of the Student Forum to arouse student interest in world affairs. This goal is achieved by lecturers who give their opinions on current events, and by group discussions by the entire membership. Is it any wonder that the Student Forum has made our tree so highly informed?

Who's Who? What's What? What's Where? These questions are very well taken care of in the Student Manual. Everything from Alpha Pi to locker rooms is contained within its beautifully designed cover. Its value to Freshmen is immeasurable as it is often given the title of their "Bible." Its importance to the upper houses is of no lesser degree because as the years pass, changes occur, and this is an excellent way of keeping up to date.

The staff of 1958-1959, led by Editor-In-Chief Joyce Perkit, presented an excellent manual of worthwhile information to the students of B.H.S.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This year's victory over Newton was frosting on the cake! Our unforgettable 12-8 Turkey Day triumph, highlighted by Tom Hennessey's 79 and 57 yard touchdown sprints, climaxed a very prosperous season for the Downesmen.

Although at least two starters were usually injury victims, any particular point in the season, we accumulated a 5-1-1 record. Two cancellations, games scheduled against Weymouth and Quincy, hurt us both by depriving the team of experience and by removing our chances for two points in the win column of Class A, where we finished in sixth place.

Brookline's defense this year was terrific. We allowed only 70 points while registering 130. Hennessey, high scorer with 98 points, besides making every local All-Scholastic squad, was nominated for All-American and received honorable mention to the All-East Squad. In addition, five Brookline boys received honorable mention honors by local newspapers. They are: Mike Moreno, Jerry Varnum, Buddy Small, Billy McKeown, Chuck Prevoir, and Peter Rollins.

Other players who performed outstandingly this season were: End—Paul Hess; Tackles—Steve Forman, Joe Davis, Frank Cavenaugh; Guards—Joe Melican, Charlie and Joe Prevoir, and Jerry Vengrow; and Backs—Bob Sullivan, Walter Jackson, and Paul Buckley.

The B.H.S. student body sincerely thanks Coaches Downes and Schluntz for both their tireless work with the boys and the fine record which they once again helped us to attain.

There goes No. 7 for six.

Brookline's Suburban League Champions compiled a 13-1 league record. The team lost in the first round of the Tech Tourney on February 26th to Durfee High, 46-35.

Co-captained by Bobby Gordon and Tommy Hennessey, the hoopsters were one of the most colorful Brookline teams in years. Mr. Schlunt's utilization of a second platoon, a pressing squad which came to be known as the Rinkydinks, was both appealing to crowd interest and conducive to victories. Also, the unusually large number of down-to-the-wire contests contributed to this season's great enthusiasm in basketball.

This year's Varsity Hockey Team was as difficult to figure out as a woman! They tied strong teams such as Wakefield and Malden Catholic, yet lost to a very poor Lexington six.

The season was extremely disappointing. Last year was supposed to be a "building year"; five players: Buckley, Cushing, Hegarty, Jackson, and Kaplan returned as experienced seniors. However, the McCannmen compiled an unflattering record.

Of course, the pucksters did have some bright moments. They often sustained strong offensive attacks against potent teams, but defensive lapses, as were especially manifest in the Somerville game, ruined them. Captain Buckley's consistant fine play and scoring were the most noteworthy contributions to the team's efforts.

All-scholastic second baseman Captain Paul Hess and Coach Fitzgerald are aiming at the Suburban League title with high but reasonably well justified hopes. Most of the squad that compiled a handsome 10-4 record last year is back on the diamond. Veterans include: Captain Paul Hess, Fred Newman, Jerry Varnum, Bob Hegarty, Jon Plotkin, Sid Natanson, Paul Newman, Walter Jackson, and Billy McKeown.

"All's well that ends well." Last year's final game victory over Newton gave us a 10-4 record; maybe this year's victory will give us a championship.

Coach Howard's cross country track team wound up its dual meet season with a 3-2 record. Star junior Ronnie Davis placed first in every dual meet.

Brookline placed third in the Metropolitan meet, held at Fresh Pond, Cambridge, on October 24th. A week later, we came in eleventh in the State Meet at White Stadium. Placing in either of these two events were Davis, Purins, Carmen, Wright and Leverant.

The winter track team placed third in the Division I standings with a 3-2 record. The two losses were heart-breakers; they were the last two dual meets against the two top teams Rindge and Newton, and both were decided by the final relay. Brookline took fifth place in both the BAA Meet and the State Meet. The squad was directed by Coach Howard, in his first year as head coach, and by co-captains Frank Goldschmidt and Mike Moreno.

The spring track team, co-captained by Houston Gray and Tom Hennessey, is seeking another prosperous season.

It was commonly asked, "How could we lose so many swimming meets with our new pool?" The answer lies in the very question; the building of the new pool created a two year lapse in swimming at Brookline High. Now that underclassmen can develop their ability, future squads should be increasingly prosperous in regard to winning. Freshman and sophomores provided the bulk of the team, while juniors and, more so, seniors were relatively scarce.

The team led by Coach Case and Captain Phil Keith, wasn't victorious, but they sure set plenty of records (in the first week of the pool's history)!

The girls at Brookline High School are indeed fortunate to have at their disposal a new pool, which is one of the most beautiful and well equipped in the country. They may use it in place of taking gym during certain designated periods. It is also open to them on certain afternoons of each week. Under the supervision of Mr. Case and Miss Crowley the girls are afforded an opportunity to improve their own skills and participate in one of the most beneficial of all sports.

Field hockey has always been a very popular sport for girls at Brookline High School. This year, under the able direction of Mrs. Brusko, the advisor, and Stella Tsialas, the captain, the team was fairly successful. The most important thing, however, was the sportsmanship that the girls learned and the great enthusiasm and spirit that they exhibited.

Tennis is a sport which offers a good opportunity for girls to develop their own skills and learn cooperation. This fast-moving and wholesome game, one of Brookline's favorite sports, offers pleasant recreation and competition to all girls at B.H.S.

They can learn by participating in elementary or beginners' tennis or can engage in a stiff competition on the varsity team. This year the girls have a good season under the direction of Miss Taylor.

EPILOGUE

A man is made of memories. Funny how memories flood back as we see ourselves in pictures. Four years flash before our eyes in lightening quick succession. The shoving, squealing confusion of our first all-school rally......the snowdrifts that always seem to warrant cancellation and the contrary call of the bell on frozen morning air ....the funny feeling upon entering the wonderland of the Prom......the dynamic teacher with the hint of sternness in her voice and the love of learning in her heart.

Yes, think back, then look ahead. Let's take the knowledge we've gleaned from the past four years and use it to full advantage. We are about to enter a world where knowledge is everything and everything we do proclaims our knowledge. The area of thought is limitless. Brookline High School has opened it for us hoping that we, the class of 1959, will never close it, hoping that we will have more than memories, hoping that the branches of the greatest of all trees, The Tree of Knowledge, will continue to reach ever skyward, bringing a future filled with confidence, and the habit of success in all we do.
